

Alpha International Travel Inc. (AIT) is a premier boutique travel company with a 30-year history of excellence. We serve a diverse range of clients, including social justice organizations, government entities, universities, financial institutions, sororities, and fraternities. Our expertise extends to entertainment groups, VIPs, luxury travelers, and those with moderate budgets.

Work Environment

Our dynamic environment ensures no two days are alike. Our travel advisors manage bookings from ground transportation to corporate jets and from simple domestic trips to complex multi-country itineraries. We arrange accommodations in hotels, villas, and more, often working outside normal business hours to guarantee flawless travel experiences.

Why Choose Alpha International Travel?

- Personalized Service: Bespoke service combining the personalized touch of a boutique agency with the extensive capabilities of a large agency. A live agent is always available to respond promptly to emails and calls.
- Expert Guidance: Extensive destination knowledge and insider tips ensure every aspect of your journey is handled with precision and care.
- 24/7 Support: Dedicated support team available around the clock. Clients have direct access to AIT's Founder and President, Colin Hall.
- Certified Minority-Owned Business: Proven track record of excellence, contributing to the economy by fostering diversity.
- Industry Recognition: Ranked #11 in Travel Weekly's 2024 Power List, AIT and our parent company, Internova, are recognized as one of the world's biggest sellers of travel, a testament to our unparalleled service and expertise.

Our Team

Our travel advisors excel in creating seamless and memorable travel experiences. They manage high-volume bookings and secure competitive airline fares. Their meticulous attention to detail ensures every itinerary is perfectly planned and executed. Advisors conduct thorough research on travel destinations, providing personalized recommendations. They engage with clients warmly and respectfully, building lasting relationships through exceptional service.

Commitment to Employee Growth

We prioritize the education and growth of our team, fostering an environment where continuous improvement is celebrated. Employees are encouraged to invest in their personal and professional development.

About Colin Hall

Colin Hall, the Founder and President of AIT, holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Pittsburgh. During COVID, he founded two companies: A-T Medical <https://a-tmedical.com/1114-2/> and Han2Han <https://han2han.org/>. Colin is also a distinguished member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., and of other alumni associations. Additionally, he has earned a certificate in Statistical Analysis from NYU and completed a management program at Dartmouth College. His visionary leadership has been instrumental in establishing AIT as a leader in the travel industry.